
Other themes and topics currently being considered for special issue publications include:

- Gender Issues in International Business Research and WAIB (Women of the Academy of International Business)
- Facts, Misconceptions and Opportunities for IB Research in the Middle East and North Africa Region
- Innovative Experiential Learning Exercises in International Business Education
- Toward Crowdsourcing in International Business Research
- Best Practices for Managing and Developing AIB Chapters

We encourage authors to submit short (around 2500 words), interesting, topical, current and thought provoking articles related to the aforementioned special issue topics. See AIB Editorial Policy on the back cover page.

We further welcome submissions of proposals for special issues and particularly encourage current topics related to IB research, education, and business practice from AIB’s 18 chapters and respective regions that are of interest and relevance to the broader AIB membership. We also encourage special issue proposals on current themes related to international business in emerging markets as well as innovative and thought provoking new IB research ideas and streams, IB pedagogical methods and trends in IB business practice.
